

From conception to execution, AUSIB has been an absolute pleasure to work with. The level of professionalism shown by AUSIB management and staff while planning our trip helped to ease any concerns our group may have had.

The time we spent in India was incredible. We had access to government leaders at the highest level where if not for our partnership with AUSIB our trip would not have been nearly as successful.

We look forward to continuing our relationship with AUSIB well into the future.